Sir:

RECORD OF PERSONAL INTERVIEW

This response is filed in reply to the Examiner's communication mailed on May 30, 2003. Applicant's counsel did not receive a copy of the Interview Summary until receipt of this communication and therefore was not in a position to provide a record of the personal interview pending receipt of the Interview

Summary from Examiner.

Applicant's counsel appreciates the courtesy extended by Examiner Weinstein during the personal interview conducted on February 13, 2003. During the interview, the prior art of record was discussed including the primary Golub et al. reference (Russian Patent No. 2111908). Applicant's counsel and Examiner discussed that the packaging of Golub et al. is not a rigid self-supporting container since it requires compressed air to protect articles packaged therein. Applicant's counsel and Examiner further discussed that the addition of compressed air in Golub et al. is indicative of Golub et al.'s lack of appreciation of the benefits of low moisture conditions provided by the Applicant's claimed invention.

The Examiner indicated he would review the Amendment mailed on February 10, 2003 and obtain a translation of the Golub et al. reference to clarify its teachings.

Respectfully submitted,

WOOD, HERRON & EVANS, L.L.P.
